Tax DeRisk™

Are you having problems with HMRC?

Have you settled your tax dispute, but there is an outstanding legal structure or trust that needs to be wound up? Do you know how to do that without creating further tax liabilities?

Are you an accountant or tax adviser who has hit a 'brick wall' in your discussions with HMRC over the interpretation of a client's situation?

Do you need help with drafting or interpreting legal documents and deeds in your discussions/negotiations with HMRC?

Do you need help with negotiations/ADR with HMRC?

Have you considered whether your approach to a situation is likely to give rise to a challenge by HMRC?

Are you dealing with an estate, trust or probate where contentious tax issues arise?

Who do you turn to for help?

Tax DeRisk™ provides specialist advice from qualified legal, tax and risk advisers who can assist on all the above, and help you find your way through the complexities of the situation.

We work with lawyers, accountants and tax investigation specialists to help you find a practical solution to your problems.
